

Privacy is a priority in my life. The burden of harrassing calls and unsolicited offers from telemarketers or other businesses is overbearing. I like the NJ strictness on the Do No Call List and wish there was more done to stop the unsolicited offers made not only by phone, but also by mail. Please do not weaken what we already have going for us in NJ.